THE COACHING STAFF

GEORGE ALLEN

HEAD COACH AND GENERAL MANAGER

1st Year with Redskins Became Head Coach of the Redskins January, 1971

When the Washington Redskins set out to find a new head coach, they pointed to only one direction — West — and to only one coach, George Allen. As the winningest head coach with the same team in the National Football League, Allen accepted the challenge to give Washington a championship football team.

"The future is now."

This was the theme echoed by Allen last January when he accepted the job as head coach and general manager of the Redskins.

The future is now means that every effort Allen and his staff expends is toward one goal — bring Washington a championship football team.

And winning describes Allen.

He is the winningest coach in the National Football Conference. His five-year record of 49 wins, 17 losses, and 4 ties for a .742 percentage with the Los Angeles Rams is the best in the NFL by a coach while with the same team.

In his five years at Los Angeles, Allen led the Rams to a third place division finish in 1966; first in 1967; second in 1968; first in 1969; and second in 1970. His 11 wins, one loss and two ties in 1967 was the best season record in the history of the Rams. They played Conference title games against Green Bay and Minnesota. In two playoff bowls, they defeated Cleveland, 1968, and Dallas in 1970. Following the 31-0 win over the Cowboys, the Orange Bowl Committee gave Allen and the team a plaque congratulating them for their overall excellence and performance.

Allen went to Los Angeles in 1966 after the Rams had recorded seven consecutive losing seasons. The 1965 team had a 4-10 record. Allen quickly turned it all around as he won 8 and lost 6 in his first year as a professional head coach.

In 1967 Allen brought the Rams the best record in the history of the team with 11 wins, one loss and 2 ties. He was named "Coach of the Year" by UPI, The Sporting News and the Washington Touchdown Club, as well as "Co-coach of the Year" by the Associated Press for leading the team to their all-time winning mark. The overall record in '67, including pre-season, season, and playoff games was a fantastic 18-2-2 mark.

In 1968, Allen led the Rams to a second place finish to NFL Champion Baltimore. In 1969 they won the crown again but lost the Western title to Minnesota. Then came a second place finish in 1970.

Allen's job in an effort to give Washington even a winning season is a big one. Since their championship team of 1945, the Redskins next 25-year record (1946-1970) is 4 winning seasons, 18 losing years, and 3 have finished at the .500 mark. The last winning season was 1969 with a 7-5-2 record, the first winning season in 15 years.

Allen's reputation and record of winning and principally his phenomenal record of winning road games lends additional hope for a winning record. This is a quality that sets him apart from other football coaches.

A check of the last four years shows the Redskins won only 10 of 28 road games (10-15-3). The Rams in that period, under Allen, won 23 of 28 (23-3-2).

This is the all-time NFL record. No other professional coach in the history of the game has ever won 23 road games in four years. Allen's coaching record on the road is more significant for the Redskins since Allen did it with the Rams, a team that couldn't win away from home before he took over.

In the five pre-Allen years, the Rams won only six games away from home, 6 wins, 28 losses, and one tie.

During the Allen era, they made a complete turnabout on the road, losing only 7 games. On the road, they had 26 wins, 7 losses and 2 ties. Four of those seven losses were in his first year, 1966. Since then, 1967-1970, Allen's teams lost only 3 times in these 4 years.

Considered the shrewdest trader in the NFL as he compiled the top winning record with the Rams, Allen immediately set out to strengthen the Redskins as he pulled off an astonishing trade with his former team the day of the draft. Nine trades bringing 15 players to Washington, had been made by the end of May.

Allen, author of six books, began his pro coaching career with the Rams in 1957, after nine years at Morningside (Iowa) and Whittier (California). In 1958, he was beckoned by the Bears' George Halas to join his staff, and did, as the Bears' number one defensive coordinator. He proceeded to mold the Chicago defense into one of the best all eight years he headed the Bears' defensive unit.

The height of his defensive coaching came following the Bears' NFL championship victory over New York in 1963. Assistant coach George Allen was presented the game ball by the Chicago players. The title win was attributed to the stout Bear defense that stopped the potent Giant offense.

Allen was born April 29, 1922, in Detroit, Michigan and attended Lake Shore High School where he earned nine letters; three in football, three in basketball, and three in track. He was captain and all-conference in basketball.

In 1943 and 1944, under V-12 Naval Programs, he attended Alma College and played end. He moved on to Marquette University in 1944 and again played as a receiver. He completed his under-graduate work at the University of Michigan and was a member of the wrestling and baseball teams. He received his B.A. and M.A. from Michigan in 1947 and 1948 where he was a member of Sigma Delta Psi, national honorary athletic and scholarship fraternity. He also did graduate work on his doctorate at University of Southern California.

Allen married the former Etty Lumbruso. They have four children: George (19), a sophomore at UCLA; Gregory (17), Bruce (14) and Jennifer (10).

15th Year Duke University Born: Aug. 23, 1934, Wilmington, N.C.

Became Redskin: April 1, 1964, in trade that sent Norman Snead and Claude Crabb to the Eagles.

Pro Career: Jurgensen won the NFL passing title in 1967 for the first time. Was runner-up to Bart Starr in 1966. In '67, Sonny established three NFL and Redskin all-time passing records; most attempts, 508; most completions, 288; and most yardage, 3747. He had set previous league yardage mark of 3723, set with the Eagles in 1961. In winning the 1967 passing crown, Jurgensen finished first in TDs, (31); first in yardage (3747); first in percent of interceptions (3.1); first in attempts (508); first in completions (288); second in percentage of completions (56.7); and seventh in average yards gained per pass attempt, (7.38). Jurgensen is now ranked as the number 1 top passer in the history of the NFL.

In 1968, Jurgensen was hampered by injuries and missed three full games and parts of others. He had an elbow operation May 18 for removal of calcium deposits. He participated in training camp drills sparingly. He did not play until the final pre-season game and led Redskins to win over Steelers. After the fifth game of the season it was discovered that he had fractured ribs. A special protective cast was made and had to be worn the rest of the season. A severe case of the flu also hit him during the season. He finished 8th in the NFL in passing.

In winning his second NFL passing crown in three years in 1969, Jurgensen had 274 completions in 442 attempts for 3102 yards and 22 touchdowns. The 274 completions total is the second highest ever in the League, topped only by Sonny's 288 in 1967. He is the only passer ever to gain over 3000 yards in a season five times.

Twice Jurgensen has thrown five TD passes in one game; passed for over 400 yards on five occasions; and has thrown for over 300 yards 21 times in his career, three of these in 1969. Jurgensen has passed for over 400 yards five times, three with the Eagles and twice with the Redskins.

7th Year Arizona State University Born: July 19, 1943, Oakland, Calif.
 Became Redskin: Dec. 13, 1964. Selected No. 9 in the 1964 draft.

Pro Career: Took over for Pres Carpenter at tight end after Carpenter's injury in Eagle game 1965. Started last five games. Fifth top receiver with 18 catches for 257 yards and 2 touchdowns. Recovered 2 opponents' fumbles, no return.

In 1966, Smith finished as the top receiver in the league among the tight ends with 54 catches, 686 yards and 6 touchdowns. He started the season as the number one split end, then was involved in the "big switch" that sent him to tight end and brought Charley Taylor from the backfield to split end. As split end, during the first six games, Smith caught 16 for 162 yards, 1 TD.

In 1967 Smith's 67 receptions were the most ever in the NFL by a Tight End, and his 12 touchdown catches tied him for leadership in most TD receptions by a Tight End with Mike Ditka, who caught 12 for the Bears in 1961. It also tied him with teammate Charley Taylor for the Redskin mark, 12. Smith's second place finish to Taylor was the closest a Tight End has ever come to winning the pass receiving title. He is the third tight receiver ever to finish in the top 10 with his 3 finishes following his 7th place ranking in 1969. The others to finish in the top 10 have been Mike Ditka (4 times) and Pete Retzlaff (3 times).

In 1968, Smith played all season as flanker when he caught 45 passes, 9th best in the league.

For 1969's unanimous All-Pro tight end Smith, his 54 receptions and 9 touchdown catches represented the best by the League's tight ends. It also marked the third time Smith has been the number one tight end in the League, 1966 with 54; 1967 with 67. It was also the 4th consecutive year the five-year veteran has finished in the top ten pass leaders of the NFL. His three TD receptions against Dallas marked the second time in his career that he has caught three. He caught three against the Rams in 1967.

In 1970, with a vastly improved backfield and resultant running game, lowering the necessity for relying primarily on passing, Smith finished as the Redskins leading receiver with 43 catches for 575 yards and 9 TDs, most by a Tight End.

Charley Taylor Wide Receiver 6:03 210
8th Year Arizona State University Born: Sept. 28, 1941, Grand Prairie, Tex.
Became Redskin: Dec. 2, 1963. Redskins No. 1 draft choice for 1964.
Notable: His 53 receptions on way to 1964 Rookie of Year honors set new NFL record for most receptions by a running back in the NFL at that time. The new record set by teammate Charley Harroway, 55 catches in 1969, leaves him currently in second place.
Pro Career: 1964 Rookie of the Year, first Redskin to win this honor. First rookie since 1943 to be in top ten, rushing and receiving—6th rushing; 8th receiving. All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection first four years in the league. Taylor won the pass receiving title for 1966, catching 72 passes for 1119 yards and 12 touchdowns. He repeated in 1967 as top NFL receiver with 70 for 990 yards and 9 TDs. The 72 receptions tied the Redskin season record held by Bobby Mitchell. Taylor was part of the "big switch" midway through the 1966 season. The Redskins' finest running back was moved to split-end. The switch came in the seventh game against St. Louis. It was late in the first quarter that Taylor surprised and left his halfback post and went outside. Before the switch, from his halfback spot, Taylor caught 18 passes for 348 yards and 4 scores. Seven games later, he finished as the league leader. His 12 TDs by receptions for a Redskin and his total of 15 set a new Redskin touchdown mark for a season. Against Dallas in the first game, Taylor caught 11 passes to tie Mitchell's mark for most receptions in a game. He caught passes for more than 100 yards in five games. He had 4 in 1967.

The 1-2-4 finish by Taylor, Smith and Mitchell in 1967 marked the first time in the history of the NFL that three receivers on the same team finished that high, and the combined 197 receptions was the most by a threesome in the top-finishers, ever. The finish in 1967 was even more phenomenal since Taylor missed three games because of an injury and Mitchell was running back for five games, from the second through the sixth game. Taylor led the team in receptions again in 1968 with 48, 7th in the NFL.

In 1969, after Mitchell retired at the beginning of the season, Taylor placed second in the league with 71 receptions for 883 yards and 8 touchdowns. Going into the final game of 1969 he was tied with the winner, the Saints' Danny Abramowicz, who finished with 73.

Taylor ranked in the top ten receivers each of his first six years in the league and was well up among the leaders in 1970 until an injury suffered in the third quarter of the 10th game of the season against Dallas on Nov. 22nd sidelined him for the remainder of the season. His season total was still 42 catches for 593 yards and eight touchdowns.

Taylor broke two Redskins Records in 1970. He supplanted Hugh Taylor for most touchdowns, lifetime, with 61. The old record was 58 (all on passes). Charley has scored 50 TDs on passes, 11 by rushing. He also replaced Bobby Mitchell in the category of Most Pass Catches, lifetime. Taylor has 396 catches for 5,615 yards and 50 TDs. Mitchell's old record was 392 receptions for 6,480 yards and 49 TDs.

Taylor is currently the No. 2 Active Pass Receiver in the National Football Conference, ranking behind teammate Boyd Dowler.

For his seven years in the NFL, Taylor has averaged over 56 catches per season, the best of any active player in all professional football.
